

Tao Yuanming: The Complete Works

Tao Yuanming (365-427) was a Chinese poet, essayist, and calligrapher of the Eastern Jin dynasty. He is best known for his idyllic and rustic poems, which celebrate the simple life in the countryside.

Tao Yuanming was born in Shaoxing, Zhejiang province. His family was wealthy and influential, but Tao Yuanming himself was a simple and humble man. He preferred the simple life of a farmer and scholar, and he often retired to his countryside home to write poetry and essays.

Tao Yuanming's poems are characterized by their simplicity, sincerity, and love of nature. He wrote about the beauty of the countryside, the joys of farming, and the pleasures of simple living. His poems are also full of wisdom and insight, and they offer a unique perspective on the human condition.
